Hi William

I am sorry that I have not been in contact sooner, as I have been away from the office.

Thank you very much for the initial screen designs. We feel that it would look better and there would be less confusing for the end user if both the decimal places were the same size.

Instead of 104.50 or 32.88

Please design the display as 104.50 & 32.88

I look forward to seeing the new designs.

Thank you again and best regards

Ryan
