

Manufacturing Route.

- Viamed specify and control the components used.
- HTI manufacture of the Microstim as a sub-contractor
- HTI programmes the micro-controller, then subsequently checks the functionality
- The control of the software lies with Viamed
- HTI checks the final product prior to shipment to Viamed
- All final products are Q.A. checked at Viamed prior to release to customers