That's okay – just whenever you get them in please.

We need at least a couple sending urgently please as we have had two Ventilators require a new one this past week.

Thank you,

Good afternoon Abigail,

Thank you for your purchase order TJ240397.

We may not be able to send you twenty sensors at this time, if this is the case myself or a colleague will contact you to let you know.

In the meantime, please could I ask how many of these sensors you require urgently? ie. if some are for stock, we would ship these at a later date as the demand from hospitals is still high.

I await your reply.

Many thanks.

Kind regards

Kate Griffiths
