Hi Ryan,

Thank you for your email. I'm a little confused by the oxygen concentrator adapter – how does the outflow of test gas happen?

Please find attached our vat exemption certificate.

Hi Francesca

It was nice to speak to you, thank you for your enquiry.

Please send me your VAT exemption certificate and I will forward you a proforma invoice with our account details.

I have attached a picture of the T piece that I intend to supply. After I put the phone down, I thought about another option; we can supply you with an O2 concentrator adapter, I have also attached a picture of this. Please let me know which adapter/T Piece you would prefer?

I look forward to your response and please let me know if you have any questions.

Best regards

Ryan

Dear Vandagraph team,

We're looking to purchase a Tek Ox oxygen analyser. Would you be able to provide a VAT-free invoice? We are a registered charity and can provide a VAT exemption certificate.

Could you advise if these are in stock and what your approximate delivery times are?

Many thanks,
