Hi Jan

I really hope that we can continue and increase supply, but I cannot control the on-going effects of COVID19.

Thank you for the additional order.

The first batch of sensors should be with you today.

Stay safe

Steve

Morning Steve,

I know planning is not easy at the moment but can I assume that you will continue to send aprosely 100 sensors a week from now on until we are more or less back on track.

Yes pleas send as soon each batch is ready instead off all in one go.

Also can I add another 500 sensors to the orders list.

Kind regards

Jan Petersen
