Hi Steve

Thank you for your reply

Could I just double check on the shipping schedule below? You had previously proposed:

100 sensors Week 36

100 sensors Week 38

100 sensors Week 39

100 sensors Week 40...

Is there any way we could have cells shipped in smaller batches at an earlier date than week 45?

I have attached a new PO – if we can aim for delivery in early November, that would be great.

Many thanks Steve

Kind Regards

Zoe
