Hi Peter

I apologise for the delay. We have been waiting on O2 sensors to arrive before we could complete your repair. Thankfully it has been done and it is being tested this afternoon. We will aim to send it back to you within the next few days.

Best regards

Ryan

Hi Peter

I can confirm your parcel has arrived with us.

Unfortunately we are incredibly busy with our medical company and understaffed at the moment, so it is likely to be next week before we get the chance to look at it.

Best regards

Ryan

Good Afternoon Ryan

We have a wee bit of a discrepancy with the helium readouts on our Vandagraphn Helium Analyser and I was wondering if I could send it to you.

The unit might only need a cell, however I would feel happier if you would just have a look at it please.

Lets know and I will get it in the post to you.

Best regards

Peter
