Dear Ryan,

Yes, pls start a new shipment, as we are waiting for Drager O2 sensors very much. You do not have to collect the Siemens sensors, we can keep them, although we still have significant stock. But we can help eachother this way, and I am sure that we will sell all of them.

Just start the new pack! Thank you.

Hi Betti

I apologise, I am not sure how I did that.

The R-49V is the replacement for the OOM202 and the R-23V is the replacement for the OOM201.

I have R-23V available, should I send you 20 on a fresh invoice and then I can arrange to take back the R-49V and credit them?

I am very sorry, this is clearly my fault.

Best regards

Ryan

I am afraid you have changed your ref numbers.

Hi Betti

OOM202 - Our version is the R-23V - 0110023 = EUR €35 each EXW - Available from stock

OOM201 - Our version is the R-49V - 0110049 = EUR €36 each EXW - Unfortunately we have no stock and I am not sure exactly when we are going to receive more, we are scheduled for some to arrive within the next week or two, but this could very easily change.

Best regards

Ryan

Dear Ryan,

Do you have (or when will you) OOM202 Siemens and OOM201 Drager compatible O2 sensors on stock? 20-25 pcs.
