Good afternoon Abubakar,

I have been informed that the R-15MED (0110015) has been superseded by the R-15V sensor.

Please can you just confirm that you are happy to accept the alternative sensor?

These sensors are the same price but unfortunately due to the demand of Covid19, we are still waiting for the stock. We approximate this to be this to be 3-6 weeks.

If you have any further queries, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards

Zoey Teal
