Hi Gail,

I'm wondering if you could change the pricing on my account, I've noticed narked at 90 sell your products.

For example VN202 mkII Oxygen Analyser
on your site: £168
on narked: £180

That's less than 10% margin.

would love to push your products more, but would need better rates to be honest.

what can you do?

Oli

Good morning Olivier,

Thank you very much for your paypal order transaction ID: 6U711927VU300002X

I am very sorry but we have been having supply issues.

With regards to new R-22VAN sensors, we have been unfortunately out of stock. O2 sensor production has been prioritised towards medical sensors and so our stock of scuba sensors has been delayed. We are looking at getting these sensors the 1st week in October but this may change.

Very sorry for any inconvenience this may cause.

You can leave on backorder or you can have a full refund.

Kind regards

Gail Bell
