Hi Chris,

Apologies for the delay in my reply.

Please find attached your amended proforma invoice.

Please be advised that we are currently out of stock of the Envitec OxiQuant S Oxygen Analyser and only 1 x Sensor - Basic Flex Cable in stock, so I will need to get back to you in the next couple of days with a lead time.

Kind regards

Hi Steve,

Previously you have purchased the Envitec OxiQuant S oxygen analyser (part number 0111275). You have now requested the Maxtec Handi+ SCUBA diving analyser (part number 0111270), is this the one you require? We also have the medical version of the Maxtec Handi+ (part number 0111250) My friend is taking one to india with him and does not need a medical one, as its just for his own use, to calibrate his own unit in india. It is which ever one is the cheapest for him. I will buy it and give it to him.

Regarding the 25 of 0120131, as discussed we can't supply these for medical application as the CE certification is not valid. Do you still require for non-medical parts usage? Yes please
