Good afternoon Mimmo,

Thank you very much for your email.

Unfortunately production is being prioritised towards medical sensors and it could be a few months before we get more stock.

Kind regards

Gail Bell

Hi Gail, would be possible now to order sensors?

Best regards, Domenico.

Good morning Domenico,

We are starting to receive small batches of the R-41V, but we are working our way through back orders. New batches have not been confirmed as yet so it's unlikely to be before the end of the month.

Please find attached revised pro-forma invoice MAN126442 for your approval and payment. The carriage charge has been revised to signed services as we have been experiencing delays due to the pandemic.

Sorry for any inconvenience this may cause.

Kind regards

Hi Gail, sorry for my late answer.
Do you have 3 pin molex sensors?
Otherwise I'll proceed with these one ordered.
Best, Domenico.

Hi Domenico

Please accept my reply. We have other sensors with 3 pin molex connectors, but they have a different output to the R-41V.

However, we should have the R-41V available this week. Please can you let me know when you will make the payment and then we can arrange dispatch?

Best regards

Ryan

Hi Domenico

Thank you very much.

The R-41V sensors are available from stock and still have a trade price of £35 each EXW.

Should I treat your email as an order?

Best regards

Ryan

Hi Ryan, this time, as you said, I paid with PayPal.
Next time I'll use the credit card, as Bank transfer in GBP is very expensive for no reason.
Thank you, Domenico.

Hi Domenico

Thank you, I hope you are keeping well.

We don't normally accept paypal payments for for trade accounts, because the charges are high, but I would be happy to accept it on this occasion if it helps speed up the process. For future reference, we would normally ask for bank transfer or credit card.

Paypal payment address: paypal@vandagraph.co.uk

Best regards
