Hi Ryan,

Ah i understand.

At the moment we are working on building a webshop for all the brands we sell. The combuva website is also not updated at this moment because all our sales were "offline" in the past.

We started our shop in the beginning of last year. In attachement you can find a picture of our filling station (air and nitrox and hopefully soon trimix).

In addition to the filling station, we also sell wings, regulators, diving tanks and other accessories. And we also instruct under the Dive RAID federation.

I hope this can show that we are indeed active in the diving industry. If there are any questions, please let us know.

Friendly regards,

Jimmy Wuytack

Hi Jimmy

Thank you and I am sorry for my late reply.

I can't see any reference to your company working in the supply of diving equipment? Our dealer pricing is reserved solely for resellers of diving equipment.

Best regards

Ryan
