Hi Christine

Thank you for your order. I am very sorry to report that we are currently out of stock of the R-33S1 sensors. Our next batch is due to arrive in the first week of June.

Although this does not affect your current order, please note that we have the same issue with R-33DE sensors.

I am very sorry for the inconvenience, please can you let me know if you would like to keep the R-33S1 on back order or cancel them from the order?

I will await your reply.

Best regards

Ryan
