Betreff: Re: New order (2100140)

Dear Petra,

I hope that you are well.

Thank you for your new order.

Please be advised that we no longer sell the VM-2105 units. They have been discontinued as it is uneconomical considering the ever-increasing costs. The volume of sales does not warrant the dramatic increases in costs incurred, due to the increased regulatory documentation and testing requirements in connection with new product standards and future regulations (MDR).

We do have stock of part number 0015012.

I will wait for you to advise me on how you would like to proceed.

Kind regards
