Dear Zoey,

Trust all well. We have just received a request from our MAX-13-250 sensor customer that they are willing to wait for the 2-4 weeks lead time. We therefore kindly you to do part delivery as earlier suggested and dispatch the sensor when you receive it in your stock. We will therefore accept part delivery.

Sorry for any inconveniences caused.

Kind regards

William Omolo

Dear Zoey,

Kindly cancel the sensor and dispatch eyemax. When the customer makes another enquiry for the product , we will request for it and take into account the lead time.

Dear William,

The MAX-13-250 sensor is not a stock item so is only ordered when an order is placed.

Please can you confirm if you would like to cancel this or if you would like us to part ship the rest of the order?

If you have any further queries, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards

Zoey Teal

Dear Zoey,

Thanks for your reply.

Kindly dispatch the rest without the sensor. We will order the sensor later when they are available in stock.

Dear William,

Thank you for your email.

We have everything in stock apart from the MAX-13-250 sensor. The lead time for this sensor is going to be approximately 2-4 weeks.

Are you happy for us to part ship today/tomorrow?

If you have any further queries, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards
