Good afternoon,

I wonder if you can assist?

We are a Calibration company based in West Yorkshire and as part of the service we provide we check the purity on nitrogen units.

We have several testers that use your N-33 Nitrogen Sensor which we need to replace (Please see attached photos).

Can you advise a price per unit and details of how we would purchase a quantity.

Kind regards

Gary J Fisher

Good morning Gary,

Thank you for your email.

We do supply the N-33 sensor. These are priced at £40.00 each. The lead time will be approximately 3-6 weeks from payment being received.

It seems that we have an account on our system for yourselves but under the address of:

UK Calibration Service Limited
135 Huddersfield Road
Dewsbury
WF13 2RP

If you would like me to send you a proforma across, please can you confirm how many you require?

If you have any further queries, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards

Zoey Teal
