Good afternoon Hussein,

Thank you for your email. I have forwarded it to Ryan also so he can be aware of the UFO 130-2 issue. He has asked if someone can confirm it is the sensor that is at fault and not the customer's machine?

I am unsure what to quote you for, and I believe you require the following:

5 x R24MED 0110024 - we are expecting stock to be available in the next month or so. £28 each EXW

1 x MAX 250 SLE - please could I ask what device you will be using this in or if you have a part number as I am unsure from tl

1 x UFO 130-2 0110081 - £102.80 each EXW

I assume the other pictures are not relevant to me?

I await your reply.

Many thanks.

Kind regards

Kate Griffiths
