Good morning Hussein,

An alternative to the R-24MED is 0110049 R-49V. This item is currently in stock. Do you need me to amend your proforma invoice?

Have you been able to do what Ryan suggested - that the customer tries the UFO130-2 in another device please? We would send any sensors back.

Many thanks.

Kind regards

Kate Griffiths

Dear kate

I will send you back the 2 UFP 130-2 for autopsy to check what is wrong with them , if possible to ship a sensor the soonest as c month .

Regarding the R-24 is there any compatible one to speed up the order of all items in one order ?

Best Regards

Hussein
