Hi Ryan,

I have a bit of an emergency. The most recent sensor you sent me, I put in to an oxyspy May this year and it's just saying 'No sensor'.

Obviously doing lots of diving recently, how do we sort this out as quickly as possible?

Best wishes,

David Ainsley

Hi Ryan,

Thank you so much, it arrived today. Please can you get an invoice for both out to us with bank transfer details as I am keen to pay before the end of the tax year.

Have a great weekend.

Hi David

Nice to hear from you and thank you for your order. We will have another sensor dispatched today.

Just to let you know that the cheque you sent is still sitting on my desk at the office, but I am currently working from home and I am not sure when we will get the opportunity to take it to the bank, as our local branch has closed.

We can wait until things change or I can have the cheque destroyed and you can make your payment via a different method, such as card or bank transfer. Please just let me know how you would like to proceed.

Best regards

Ryan
