Hi Kate,

I hope you've been as well as you could be during the pandemic and that things are looking up where you are.

I wanted to reach out again and see if Viamed has the V1000 fetal heart simulator for sale again? If so, may I have a quote and an estimate for the lead time?

Thank you and hope you're taking care,

Kristen

Hi Kristen,

Thank you for your understanding.

Please do check again, I am sure that when things settle down we will start producing these again.
