Hello Ryan

Your are right, can I get another order about 10 D09 and 18 D40- think it will be ok for an invoice under 1000 Euro.

Mit freundlichen Grüßen / With kind Regards

Hi Andrea

I am really sorry for the delay.

Your order of D-40 sensors is due the 1st/2nd week of August.

The D09 will also be ready the 1st week of August.

You normally request an invoice limit of €1k, can I confirm you would like them shipped together?

Best regards

Ryan

Hello Ryan

Will you please add 20 D09 to the next order? Thank you in advance.

Do you have any idea how long the second order will take?

Hi Andrea

I can only apologise.

We have one of your orders going through production, which we hope will be ready for dispatch this week. Unfortunately it will be the end of July before more sensors arrive in order to fulfill your second order.

Hi Andrea

I have had a reply this morning, we should receive the component sensors next week sometime and then we have to put them into production which could take a week or two.

I am sorry for the delay.

Hi Andrea

I can't say for sure, I am hoping that there are some in transit, but I have a horrible feeling that they have not been sent yet.

I should know more in the next few days.

Hi Andrea

I am sorry, the component sensors have not arrived with us yet, I am trying to chase them. We will need 1-2 weeks once they arrive to assemble the sensors.

Hi Andrea

Thank you for your understanding. I can confirm I have put your order into the queue. We do not have any stock at the moment, so it may not help having a part shipment, but we can address this when we have the base sensors in stock ready for production.

We would be happy to accept CC payment, but we can do this once your order has been dispatched. Just let me know once you receive dispatch confirmation and we can then take the details from you.

Best regards

Ryan

Hello Ryan

I know the issues with all production and delay problems, I like to hold the order. Thank you very much.

Maybe you are able to send me 10 pieces for the first time? This will be helpful. Shall we make a payment by Credit Card? Think we did this last time and it will be the best solution for both of us.

Hi Andrea

I apologise for the delay in my reply.

Please find your quotation attached. Unfortunately we are short on the base sensor and so the estimated delivery would be the middle of June.

Please let me know if you would like to proceed with the order or if you require any amendments.

Hello Ryan

Please reduce the quantity- we need 28 pieces- otherwise the customs will cause problems because it's over 1000 Euro. So we will order only 28 pieces- in total it will be 833 GBP- plus shipping it will be ok for us.

Hi Andrea

I hope you are keeping well.

Please find your order confirmation attached. Please confirm if we should proceed?

Please can you provide your company EORI number? Sometimes this is the same as the VAT number, but I thought it better to check.
