Hi Ashley

I can confirm the R-41V is the correct sensor.

Best regards
Ryan

Good morning Ryan, Please find attached some images of the current fitted o2 sensor. Ive also copied a section form the LMNT blender page which may be of some use. Just want to double check the R-41V is the correct replacement before placing the order. Many thanks

O2 Sensor

- O2 medical sensor; electrical connector 3,5 mm, output signal 13 to 17 mV.
- Suitable to diving analyzers

Dear Ashley

Thank you for your enquiry via our sister company Viamed.
Please accept my reply from Vandagraph, aswe take care of the sales of products for the Scuba industry.

We would be happy to offer you our trade pricing, please find the total cost below:

R-41V = £35 each
Postage by 1st class Signed = £6
Total with VAT = £49.20

The R-41V sensors are available from stock and we would endeavour to dispatch orders as soon as they are confirmed. We would ask for prepayment, this can be done by bank transfer or credit card.

Please let me know if you have any questions or if you would like to proceed with an order.

Kind regards
Ryan
