Hi Steve,

Thanks for mail and sorry for late answer, been trying to have smal holyday here.

for sensors in oktober yes pleas prepare a batch off 600 sensors,

I been out diving and also have doen testing whit the NM sensor and it it works great it does look like I have a ready to dive reabreather at the end off this year so light at the end off the tunnel on this projekt.

Kind regards

Hi Jan

Just a quick check to see if you have any requirements for oxygen sensors after September?

Early September we have the following scheduled:
12 sensors as warranty replacements.
600 production sensors

Regards

Steve
