Hi Sophie,

Sorry this is still in limbo, we can't really book them in for next year until we've done them this year, as this one needs to be 12 months after the upcoming service is completed.

I'm going to go with a rough guess that we will do them by the end of this month or beginning of next month as the restrictions should be fully lifted by then.

So lets say a provisional date of 1st September 22 for now and we will have to adjust when this year's service visit (which according to the purchase order is actually the 2020 service visit postponed due to COVID) is completed.

Steve
