Thanks so much Gail

Please can you quote the Analyser VN202 mkII?

Finally client requests it me instead of the sensor only

Looking forward your reply. Please quote UPS or any other transport cost instead of Royal Mail (we have some problems last time with shipment). Thanks so much

Good morning Sonia,

Thank you very much for your email.

I will amend the pro-forma accordingly.

Does your client require a Din Kit or Quick-ox with the analyser?

Kind regards
