Cell is in warranty for customer, but out of warranty with EnviteC.

18/Oct/2021 Catherine Spence

SRS67968 SRN34229 S/N: V100936 sold as a matched pair (0110073) sold on RVM131920-1 on 06/08/2021 returned as the connector top is smaller than usual and will not connect into the ATOM incubator. Looked at stock that we have available and the returned sensor top does look a little smaller, think a random cap has got into production as they have not returned any others not even the matched partner. Issue sent to SN #239053 and also skype message

18/Oct/2021 Catherine Spence

outer measurement should be 16.8mm the one sent back is 14mm

spoken to steve nixon, measured top of sensor and its smaller than it should be, to return to honeywell, replace faulty sensor to nufer under warranty need to match the output as its part of a pair returned sensor out put is 11.035 will replace with serial number V101238 out put 11.039 checked through with derek
