

Risk Analysis

This product has been in use in its present form since 1984

The main risks involved in manufacture are:-

Sharp edges,,

Wrong sizes,

Protruding screws on the hinges,

Loose screws on the hinges,

The main risks involved in use are:

The lid must fit over the cot and be fitted correctly so that the lid cannot fall off or into the cot.

Possible build up of CO₂ over time. Reduced by using the handles as ventilation slots.

Humidity. Users advised to use louvre versions.