Hi again Abdelhak,

Please see attached proforma invoice as requested. I have worked out the carriage charge for UNBOXED sensors, as per your last request.

As per my previous email, I have been informed by our export manager that you may have trouble importing in to Italy, as the product is not registered there. Another EU country may be better for you.

Please let me know if you require any changes to be made. The proforma is valid for 30 days and our payment details are at the bottom left hand side of the proforma invoice.

Please note, I cannot allocate stock until payment is received.

Many thanks.

Kind regards

Kate Griffiths
