Dear Hanson,

Thank you for your email.

We can still supply the AX300 however it is no longer covered by CE certification so we do not stock this item. We can get them from the manufacturer but only in large volumes. We do have alternative Analysers that we can offer.

Please can you confirm what the Analysers would be used for so I can offer a suitable replacement?
Would you also require alarms?

If you have any further queries, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards

Zoey Teal
