Hi Mariusz

Please accept my reply.

We always try to supply sensors with the earliest manufacturing date as we can, but it has been a challenge over the last 2 years with O2 sensor production, as the lead times for production have increased dramatically due to the increased demand for medical sensors. In turn we have had to try and carry more stock for longer. In order to have the best chance we can at continued supply, we also have multiple manufacturers working on sensors for us, but unfortunately some sensors are supplied with older manufacture dates than others.

If you are ever ordering and have concerns with the manufacture date, please just let us know and we can check our current stock for you prior to dispatch.

Please note that all of the sensors we supply have a 12 month warranty from the date of invoice, the manufacture date has no bearing on this.

If you feel your customers will not be happy with the sensors you recently purchased, then you can return them and I will swap them for the latest batch, which I believe has just arrived into stock?

Please have a great weekend,
Ryan

I received package.

All of sensor have date of production 23.02.2021 r. I ordered new sensors and I thing the date of production will be fresh (second part of the year). I don't know what to do now. I think peoples will not buy it because of this date.

Best regards,
mlinke ;)
