

Bio-Compatibility.

The materials; Polycarbonate and Polyethylene have been used continuously in the Neonatal Intensive Care areas since the mid 1960's without adverse effects being reported.