Hi Pieter

In a few days we can have the updated emergency batch of 200 ready, is this enough?

Additional stock would take say 4 - 6 weeks.

Regards

Steve

Hi Pieter,

All is well here thank you.

The scheduled shipment date for your next batch of sensors is the 14th of February. We do have the emergency batch of sensors if you need us to ship before then.

This order is on our system for standard shipment service, however if you would like me to upgrade to Express Saver or Express, just let me know.

Kind regards

Sarah Walton
