Hi Guido

Your in time, I have added the R-33S1 sensor. I have created a separate order for your R-17S1, we will let you know when they become available in case you want to add more items to the order.

Thank you and best regards

Hi Guido

Would you like to leave the R-17S1 on back order for when they become available or should I cancel them?

Best regards
Ryan

Hi Guido

Thank you very much for your order.

Unfortunately we are currently out of stock of the R-17S1 sensors. We are expecting to receive more 3rd week in June. Please can you let me know if you would like us to ship your order once we have all the items, part ship your order or cancel the R-17S sensors?

I will await your reply and I'm sorry for the inconvenience.

Best regards
Ryan
