Good Morning,

We are currently awaiting two orders from you, these were place over a month ago and we have yet to receive the delivery of either.

There PO numbers were;

PO	Date ordered
RTHN400147680	30/05/2022
RTHN400143336	10/05/2022

We are now completely out of stock due to this delay and this will mean if any devices need the O2 sensor, we will have cancel patient cases so are now very keen these delivered ASAP

I have attached the POs for your inspection

Any help would be greatly appreciated

Many Thanks
