Hi Ryan, let's stay with UPS, the issue with airmail is not on the Royal Mail side but with the spanish "Correos" service that is quite unreliable, even more when there are custom duties to pay, it may take a long time until the custom clearance on the spanish Correos is made.

Thanks

Hi Josep

Airmail would be GBP £12, whereas you paid GBP £29 on your last order for UPS.

UPS is definitely quicker, but it is expensive for small orders. I think it is a flat rate up to 20kg for Spain, so it works well for larger orders.

Best regards
Ryan
