ELSEVIER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUPPLY

1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties ("the TC"). They supersede any previous supply terms and conditions. For the purposes of the TC "Elsevier" shall mean the company within the Elsevier group that is providing the Products or Services as set out on the Elsevier order acknowledgement or invoice. Where general terms and conditions of business are proposed by the Client, these shall not apply and the TC will prevail. Any variation to the TC and any representations about the Products and Services shall have no effect unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorised signatory of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation. Where Products are sold to the Client that contain third party product or software such a sale may be subject to additional license terms.

2. Offer and acceptance/ Description

Each order for the Products and Services by the Client from Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or (if earlier) Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commences performance of the Services for the Client. All product orders are accepted subject to availability of the ordered Products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the agent is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use. Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. Upon any violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to disclose all recipients of Elsevier Products and Services from Client, including all actual recipients that have not been previously properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with descriptions of the Products and Services agreed by both parties in the relevant order, including such things as format, printing processes, technical design, size and kind of address file, weights and the like. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising issued by Elsevier and any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier's catalogues or brochures are issued or published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described in them. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for rejecting delivery or, as the case may be, modifying the agreed price.

3. Execution and modification of the order

Any modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget or schedule, as set out in the order acknowledgement, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier's discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional Services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall act in the name of, to the account of, and at the risk of the Client. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/performance of the Products and Services are intended to be an estimate and time for delivery/performance shall not be made of the essence by notice. If no dates are so specified, delivery/performance will be within a reasonable time.

4. Prices, taxes and currencies

Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing the price/rates for the Products and Services shall be those set out in Elsevier's current price/rate list (whether print or online). All such prices/rates shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, transport and insurance charges unless otherwise agreed in writing, and shall also be exclusive of any taxes, import duties or other levies imposed on the sale or import of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as appropriate. Where applicable, Client shall provide to Elsevier Client's VAT registration number or other evidence of tax exemption to Elsevier at the time of placing its order. If, under the laws of the territory in which Client is selling the Products, the Client is required to withhold any tax on the amounts payable to Elsevier under the TC, then the amount of the payment will be automatically increased to fully offset such tax, so that the amount actually remitted to Elsevier, net of all taxes, equals the amount invoiced or otherwise due. The Client will promptly furnish Elsevier with the official receipt of payment of those taxes to the appropriate taxing authority. All financial transactions must be settled in the currency of the applicable Elsevier invoice. The Client will be solely responsible at its own cost for completing any foreign exchange-related procedures in the said territory that are necessary to make payments to Elsevier under the TC, including without limitation all bank charges and foreign exchange charges.

5. Payment

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency invoiced. Time for payment shall be of the essence. Elsevier may set and vary credit limits for any Client account and shall be entitled to refuse to supply any Client who has exceeded its current credit limit. Legal and beneficial title in any tangible Products supplied by Elsevier to the Client shall remain with Elsevier until Elsevier has received in full (in cash or cleared funds) all sums due to it in respect of the Products and all other sums which are or which become due to Elsevier from the Client on any account. The Client may resell the Products before ownership has passed to it provided that any sale shall be effected in the ordinary course of the Client's business at full market value and any such sale shall be a sale of Elsevier's property on the Client's own behalf and the Client shall deal as principal when making such a sale. Elsevier shall be entitled to recover payment for the copies of the Product notwithstanding that ownership of any of the copies of the Product has not passed from Elsevier. For the avoidance of doubt no intellectual property rights in any Elsevier Products shall transfer to the Client. Products shall be at the Client's risk as from delivery. The Client shall make all payments due under the TC without any deduction whether by way of set-off, counterclaim, discount, abatement or otherwise unless the Client has a valid court order requiring an amount equal to such deduction to be paid by Elsevier to the Client. From the due date of the invoice to the date of payment in full, interest at the rate of 1% may be charged to the Client on a monthly basis for any sums outstanding, together with any collection fees incurred by Elsevier. If the Client wishes to dispute any invoice (or part), the Client shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, but no later than the due date of such invoice, send full details of such dispute to Elsevier in writing. The Client shall remain liable for any undisputed part of such invoice. Elsevier shall be entitled, at any time, to demand payment in advance and may suspend performance of its obligations arising from the TC until such advance payment has been received. Where the Client is indebted to Elsevier for any other Product or Service under any other order, Elsevier reserves the right to withhold supply of the Products or Services under the current order until any outstanding monies are fully paid. Elsevier shall be entitled to apply any monies received by the Client, to clear any of the Client's outstanding debts to Elsevier.

6. Distribution

The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in those activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of its sales of the Products, exercising full credit control and solely bearing all of its own losses resulting from any uncollected amounts. Delays or failures in obtaining such payments will not affect the Client's obligation to make payments to Elsevier under clause 5.

7. Intellectual property

Copyright and other intellectual property rights to all Elsevier proposals, publications and other Products and/or Services shall remain with Elsevier unless agreed otherwise in writing. The rights granted by Elsevier are restricted to use solely by the Client and may not be assigned, transferred or sublicensed without the prior written permission of Elsevier. The rights granted by Elsevier are non-exclusive and for the purpose expressly agreed upon. Any other use shall require the prior written permission of Elsevier. The Client shall not acquire any intellectual property rights in the Products. No part of the Elsevier proposals, publications or Products may be stored in any automated data file and/or reproduced, whether electronically, mechanically, by photocopying, recording or in any other manner or form, without the specific prior written permission of Elsevier.

8. Liability and claims

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY RELEVANT LAWS (I) Elsevier shall not be liable for any of the following losses which may arise by reason of any breach of this TC or any implied warranty, condition or other term, any representation or any duty of any kind imposed on Elsevier by operation of law: (a) any loss of anticipated profits or expected future business; (b) damage to reputation or goodwill; (c) any damages, costs or expenses payable by Elsevier to any third party; (d) loss of any order or contract; or (e) any loss that was not foreseeable by the Client and Elsevier at the time this TC was entered into; or (f) any loss not caused by any breach on the part of Elsevier; AND (II) NEITHER PARTY SHALL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR DEATH OR PERSONAL INJURY EXCEPT THAT RESULTING FROM ITS OWN NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL INTENT OR THE NEGLIGENCE OF ITS EMPLOYEES OR OTHERS FOR WHOM THE PARTY IS LEGALLY RESPONSIBLE. NOTHING IN THE TC SHALL BE CONSTRUED AS CREATING AN OBLIGATION TO INDEMNIFY THE OTHER PARTY AGAINST THE OTHER PARTY'S OWN NEGLIGENCE. ELSEVIER'S LIABILITY FOR ANY OTHER LOSS IMPUTABLE TO IT SHALL IN ANY EVENT BE LIMITED TO THE INVOICE VALUE OF THE PART OF THE TC TO WHICH THE LIABILITY ARISES. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY RELEVANT LAWS ELSEVIER EXPRESSLY EXCLUDES ANY LIABILITY FOR BREACH OF ANY IMPLIED OR EXPRESS WARRANTY OF AS TO MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. NOTHING IN THIS CONTRACT SHALL LIMIT THE CLIENT'S EXISTING LEGAL OR STATUTORY RIGHTS WHERE IT IS ACTING AS A CONSUMER. The parties agree that the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods shall not apply to this TC or the interpretation thereof. The Client has entered into this TC in the knowledge that the liability of Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with these terms and conditions and the charges have been agreed accordingly. The Client acknowledges that a higher price would be payable for the Products or Services but for such limitations.

9. Force majeure

If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or other action of the elements, accidents, power or telecommunications failure, customs delays, governmental restrictions or appropriation or other causes beyond the control of a party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part its obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of those obligations to the extent it is thereby unable to perform, and such inability to perform shall not make such party liable to any other party. The party subject to an event of force majeure shall use good faith efforts to comply as closely as possible with the provisions of this TC and to avoid the effects of such event to the extent possible.

10. Advertising & Reprints

Client is solely responsible for ensuring proposed advertising copy is received at Elsevier in electronic form (or such other form as specified by Elsevier) and within the relevant deadline set by Elsevier (the "Closing Date"). Where copy is received late or not at all, although Elsevier will endeavour to do so, Elsevier may not be able to arrange for such copy to be published on the agreed date or for the agreed period. Payment for the campaign will however be required in full. When change of copy is not received before the Closing Date, copy run in previous issue may be inserted. Client shall retain a complete copy of all materials delivered to Elsevier. Elsevier shall take reasonable care but shall not be liable for accidental loss or damage thereto. Client is solely responsible for any legal liability arising out of or relating to any Client advertisement or other content (the "Advertising Content"). Client represents and warrants that (i) Client holds the necessary rights to permit the use of the Advertising Content by Elsevier for the purposes of this TC, (ii) the use, reproduction, distribution, or transmission of the Advertising Content will not violate any civil or criminal laws, rules or regulations or industry codes or any rights of any third parties including, but not limited to, infringement or misappropriation of any copyright, patent, trademark, trade secret, music, image, or other proprietary or property right, false advertising, unfair competition, defamation, invasion of privacy or rights of celebrity, violation of any anti-discrimination law or regulation, or any other right of any person or entity; (iii) Advertising Content complies with any applicable laws, rules, industry codes, regulations and generally prevailing custom and practice. Client agrees to indemnify Elsevier and to hold Elsevier harmless from any and all liability, loss, damages, claims, or causes of action, including reasonable legal fees and expenses incurred by Elsevier, arising out of or related to the Advertising Content or Client's breach or alleged breach of any of the foregoing representations and warranties. Elsevier reserves the right to reject any advertising and/or promotions that are not consistent with Elsevier's standards. In addition, Elsevier shall have the right, at any time, to remove any of Client's advertising and/or terminate this TC if Elsevier determines, in its sole discretion, that the Advertising Content or any portion or publishing thereof (1) violate Elsevier's then applicable advertising policy; (2) violate any law, rule or regulation or industry code or if Elsevier is directed to do so by any law enforcement agency, court or government agency; (3) are the subject of a claim asserted by an entity with respect to its trademarks, trade names, service marks or other proprietary rights or (4) are otherwise objectionable to Elsevier. In such event, Elsevier may either (i) publish alternative Advertising Content in consultation with the Client or (ii) refund to Client a pro rata portion of the fee which Client has paid to Elsevier for display of the Advertising Content (if Client has paid Elsevier a flat fee). Elsevier will not be liable for the timely appearance or accuracy of any advertisement supplied by the Client. Elsevier may terminate this TC at any time in the event of a breach of this TC by Client. Orders must specify a definite schedule of insertions, issues and sizes of space for a specific advertiser. Two or more advertisers are not permitted to use space under the same order. No advertising orders will be accepted for periods longer than one year. Where an order for a series of advertisements has been given a discounted rate for volume by Elsevier, and the Client does not order the quoted volume, Elsevier shall be entitled to re-calculate the price for the actual volume at the end of the applicable year at a reduced discount and the Client shall pay any additional amount found owing. If the Client orders in excess of the quoted volume, Elsevier shall return to the Client any amount overpaid by the Client. Orders specifying positions are accepted subject to the right of Elsevier to determine actual positions. If Elsevier considers it necessary to modify the space or alter the date or position of insertion or make any other alteration, the Client will have the right to cancel the order for that advertisement, if the alterations requested are unacceptable, unless such changes are due to an event of force majeure. Elsevier can only supply reprints of published material and shall be entitled to reject any order for reprints of material that has not been published.

11. Audit

Client shall allow Publisher's authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client's premises (or to arrange for Publisher's authorized representatives to have access to other relevant premises) for the purpose of inspecting Client's facilities, books and records to verify Client's compliance with the TC.

12. Compliance with laws

Client shall at all times during the term strictly comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, codes, regulations, standards and judicial and administrative orders (jointly "Applicable Laws" or "Laws") relevant to its duties, obligations and performance under this Agreement, including, without limitation, the RELX Suppliers Code of Conduct at Suppliers Code of Conduct and Applicable Laws related to bribery, including, without limitation any such Laws that are enforced internationally (such as the United States Foreign Corrupt Practice Act and the UK Bribery Act) and those enforced in the country where business is being conducted and/or the Client's place of business or residency. Client and its officers, directors, employees and agents shall engage only in legitimate business and ethical practices in commercial operations and in relation to its dealings with any employee or official of a government agency or any other government owned, operated or controlled entity (including, without limitation, state run universities, hospitals and libraries), or political parties or candidates (jointly "Government Official"). Neither the Client nor any of its officers, directors, employees or agents shall pay, offer, give, promise or authorize the payment, directly or indirectly, of any monies or anything of value for any commercial contact or Government Official for the purpose or intent to induce such person to use his/her authority to help the Client, Elsevier, and/or any affiliate of Elsevier for personal gain or for that of Elsevier or Elsevier's affiliates (any such act, a "Prohibited Payment"). A Prohibited Payment does not include a payment of reasonable and bona fide expenditures, such as travel or lodging expenses, which are directly related to the promotion, demonstration or explanation of Products or Services or the execution or performance of a contract provided that such payments are permissible under the Applicable Laws. The Client further agrees that he/she will not accept any payment or other benefit in money or in kind from any person as an inducement or reward for any act or forbearance or in connection with any matter or business transacted by or on behalf of Elsevier.

13. Cancellations & Returns

If the Client cancels an order either fully or partially, a cancellation fee may be charged. All cancellations must be made in writing. This fee will be calculated to cover any external or internal costs which have been incurred or committed up to and including the date of cancellation. No new external costs will be incurred or committed/contracted from the date of receipt of written notice of cancellation by Elsevier. Orders for advertisements must be cancelled in writing prior to the relevant ad space closing date, but in the event that any cancellations are made after such date, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge the full cost of the advertisement. Any returns of the products shall be subject to the relevant Elsevier company's return policy applicable to the product at the time of the return. Details of such policies will be provided to the Client upon request. Reprints cannot be returned once these have been printed.

14. General

The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that same corporate domicile. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Elsevier may assign the TC or any part of it to any person, firm or company. If any provision of the TC is found by any court, tribunal or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be wholly or partly illegal, invalid, void, voidable, unenforceable or unreasonable it shall to the extent of such illegality, invalidity, voidness, voidability, unenforceability or unreasonableness be deemed severable and the remaining provisions of the TC and the remainder of such provision shall continue in full force and effect. Failure or delay by Elsevier in enforcing or partially enforcing any provision (or prosecuting any breach) of the TC will not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under the TC.

JSES Policy on Advertising

Effective Date: 1/1/2020

The Journal of Shoulder and Elbow Surgery and its affiliated journals (hereinafter referred to as "JSES") accept advertisements to be displayed in JSES Associated Products, defined to include all JSES journals, whether print or digital; voice products such as webinars, podcasts, or social media; and any other communication media used by JSES now or to be developed in the future. However, JSES and its publisher (hereinafter referred to as "Publisher") reserve the right to refuse any advertisement from any source if it does not adhere to this JSES Policy on Advertising.

All advertisements that appear in JSES Associated Products must be approved by JSES and Publisher, and a signed contract with the Publisher must be executed prior to the appearance of such advertisement. The contract will set forth specific dates and/or issues in which the advertisement is scheduled to appear; it will not grant the advertiser any general right to publish the same or another advertisement in an Associated Product at any other time.

The inclusion of an advertisement in a JSES Associated Product is not to be construed as an endorsement or approval of any company or company's products or services by JSES, Publisher, the American Shoulder and Elbow Surgeons (ASES), or any other shoulder and elbow society affiliated with JSES.

All advertisements to appear in JSES Associated Products must be germane to shoulder and elbow surgery or otherwise related to the health care industry. In addition:

1. No advertisement may make a false, deceptive, or misleading claim concerning the advertised product or service. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing:
 - (a) Any claims as to the clinical effectiveness of a product or service must be substantiated by evidenced-based literature in the standard medical literature and be provided to Publisher and JSES upon demand.
 - (b) Drug advertisements must include the full generic name of each active ingredient and otherwise comply with all applicable state and federal regulatory requirements, as well as any applicable industry or governmental agency guidelines.
 - (c) Any advertisement that includes a sponsorship or logo must be accompanied by written evidence from the sponsoring body that the advertiser has been given permission to reference such sponsorship or use such logo.
2. Advertisements for educational conferences and other courses will be considered only if Continuing Medical Education (CME) credit is available for participation in the conference or other course, and the individual or entity submitting the advertisement is able to provide documentation that it has applied for and received such CME credit. It is the responsibility of the advertiser to ensure that the advertisement complies with the applicable CME guidelines (e.g., AAOS, ACGME, ACCME, AMA, etc.) on advertising. No claims of a course's superiority or effectiveness may be made without substantiating evidence.
3. Any advertisement for an educational conference or course that conflicts, either in time or subject matter, with a course sponsored by ASES or other sponsoring shoulder/elbow society of JSES, will be published only if reviewed and approved by the ASES Executive Director.
4. No advertisement for employment opportunities may contain false or misleading claims concerning the position(s) and may not include specific compensation information. All such advertisements must be nondiscriminatory and comply with all applicable laws and regulations. Advertisements that discriminate against applicants based on gender, age, race, religion, sexual orientation, or physical handicap will not be accepted.
5. Advertisements for alcoholic beverages, firearms, and tobacco products will not be accepted.
6. The word "Advertisement" must be printed at the top of any advertisements that might be confused with editorial pages, and advertisements topically related to editorial content will not knowingly be placed adjacent to such editorial content.
7. Neither ASES nor JSES will be liable for any failure to print, publish, or circulate all, or any portion, of any issue in which an advertisement accepted by JSES is contained if such failure is due to natural disasters, strikes, wars, accidents, acts of terrorism, or other circumstances beyond JSES's or ASES's control.
8. All advertising is subject to approval by JSES, which approval may be withheld in its sole discretion. Such approval will depend on several factors, including but not limited to: (a) testimonials/endorsements; (b) identification of the product and advertiser; (c) compliance with regulatory requirements; and (d) the inclusion of a statement reading "substantiating data based on research is available from the advertiser upon reader request" in any product comparison using trade names.
9. Any advertiser submitting an advertisement that is accepted by JSES, but later found not to be in accordance with this policy, will be subject to penalties that may include denial of future advertisements in JSES Associated Products.
10. In consideration of publication of an advertisement, the advertiser and/or its agency agree to jointly and severally indemnify and hold harmless ASES, JSES, Publisher, and their officers, agents, and employers against expenses (including legal fees) and losses resulting from the publication of the contents of the advertisement, including, without limitation, claims or suits for defamation, violation of privacy, copyright infringement, or plagiarism.

This policy is effective as of January 1, 2020, and will remain in effect until further acted upon or withdrawn by the JSES Board of Trustees.

Jeffrey S. Abrams, MD
Chairman, JSES Board of Trustees
