Hi Steve,

we got an enquiry for TOF3D from the UK.

Can you please follow up on this.

Thanks.

Dear Ian,

I was wondering if you had any luck getting these new monitors in stock, and if the possibility of a trial might now be on? We have tried a couple of competitors in the last few months, but I would be interested to compare with the TOF3d if it is available?

I would also be interested to know the pricing of the unit if they are available.

Kind regards,

Tom.
