

Improving Practice

Sharon Lowe

Our nearest rivals for a title in Trafford

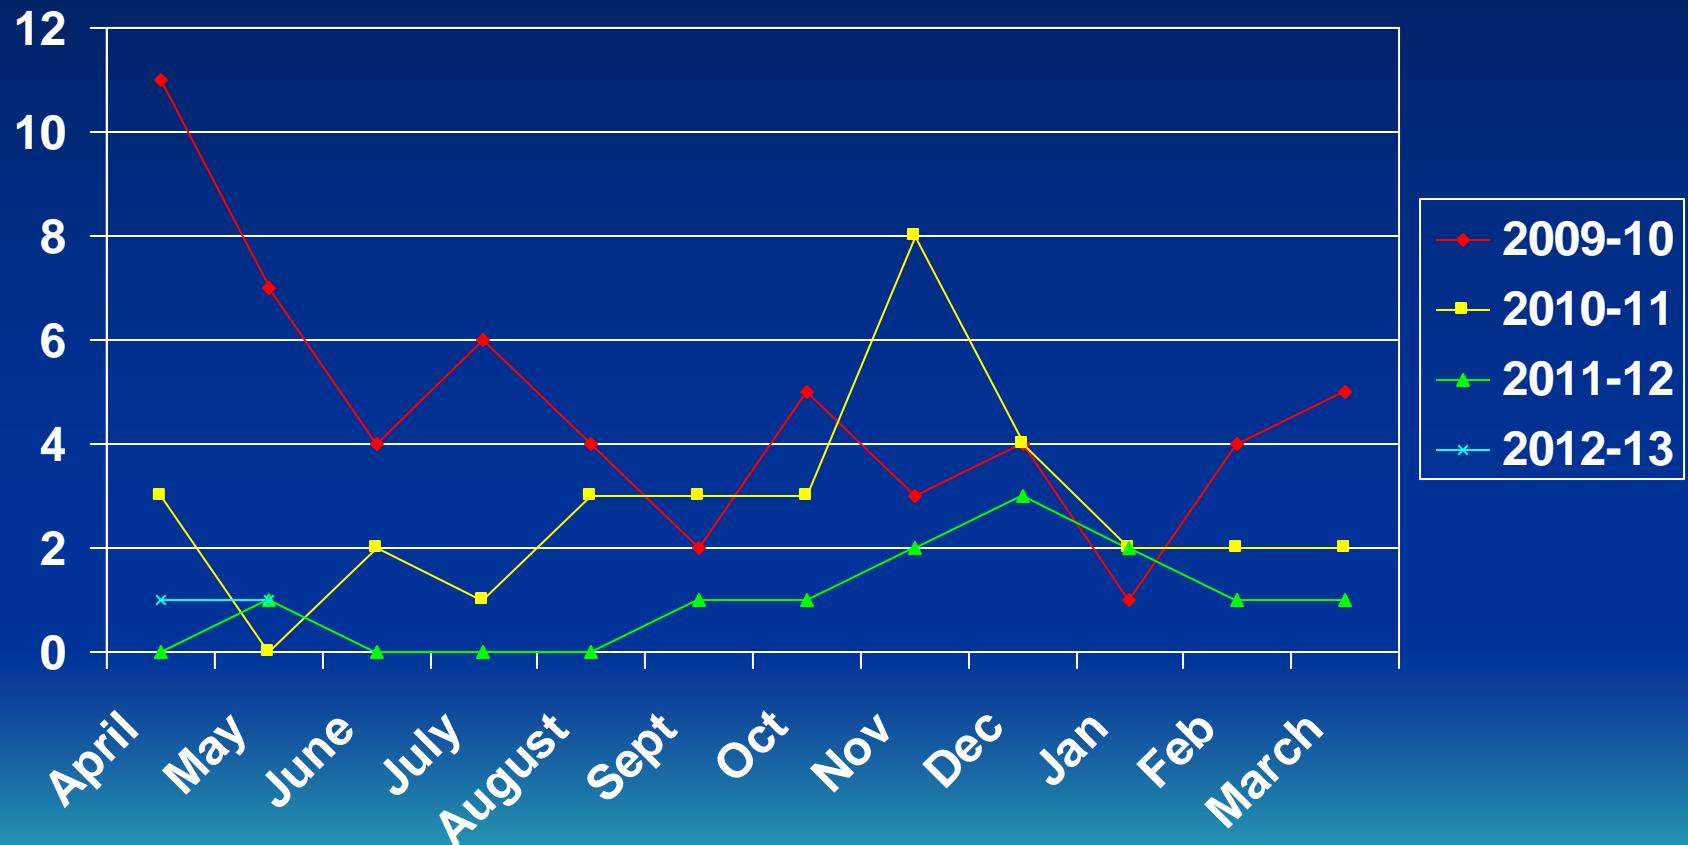

So Who are we

- Opened in 1928
- Military hospital during the war
- Became 1st NHS Hospital in England
- Small Acute NHS Hospital

Where we came from and where we are Now

Clostridium Difficile

- 2009-10 56 cases
- 2010-11 33 cases
- 2011-12 12 cases

MRSA Progress

- 2009-10 1 Case in April
- 2010 -11 Zero Cases
- 2011-12 Zero Cases

What did we do

?

Risky areas

- Hand hygiene
- IV lines and sites
- Clean environment
- Clean equipment
- Education

Board Involvement

Staff Play their part

Remember

TEAM

NOT

I

Good Examples

Practices

UCLH CLINICAL PRACTICE GUIDELINE

Aseptic-Non-Touch-Technique (ANTT) for peripheral & central access intravenous therapy

1. Clean hands
before starting

2. Clean tray &
sterile trolley

3. Sterile equipment

4. Clean hands
before starting

5. Use sterile gloves
before handling
sterile equipment

6. Clean drugs
before handling
sterile equipment

7. Clean entry point
& dressings

8. Sterile gloves
before handling
sterile equipment

9. Sterile technique &
aseptic glove placement

10. Clean tray

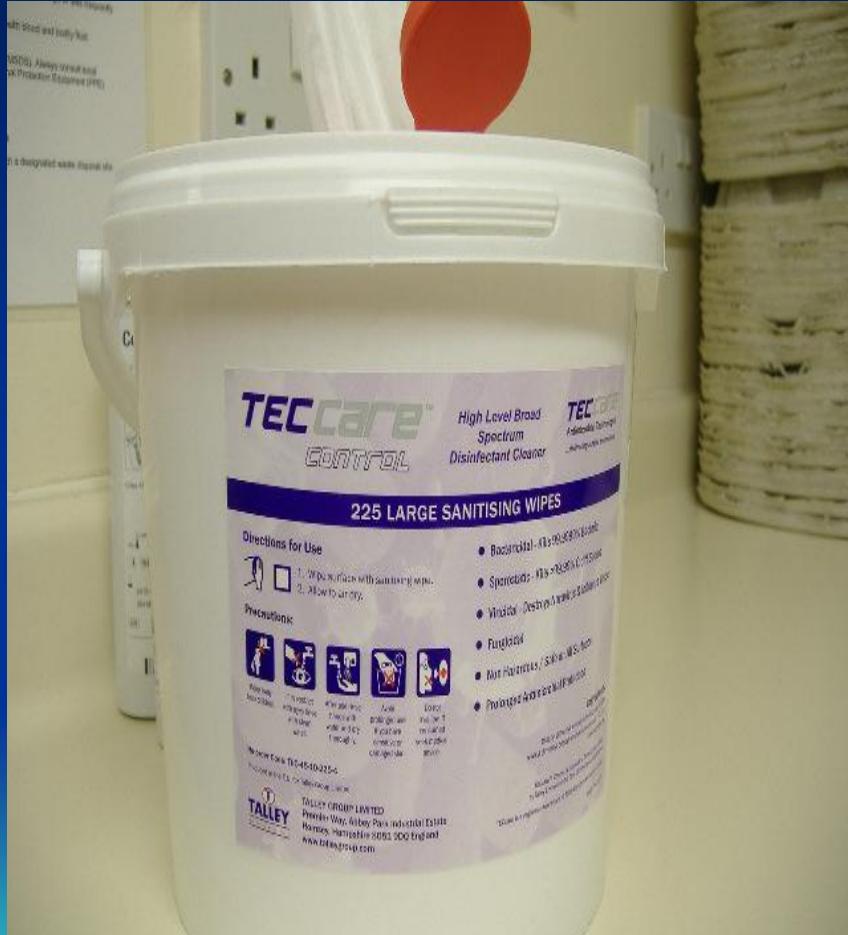

11. Clean hands
before starting

www.antt.co.uk

University College London Hospitals
with Frimley Park

NHS

Products

Checking practices

- Audits
- Bio luminescence (including sparkle dust)
- Environmental screening
- Feedback to ward matrons

Evidence

New Challenge

Sustaining the success

Smashing MRSA

