Hi Derek,

I settled down to do this close out and the report is only for one of the certificates. This is my mistake as I did not make it clear enough to our admin. I will have it done as soon as they raise a valid job number. If it raises any questions I will let you know. There is currently an eight hour time difference but this should not slow things down.

Kind regards

Hi Richard,

The Main non conformance consists of quite a few files so see the ZIP file.

the other files attached are for some of the other minor non conformances in the BSI report(s).

let me know if I've missed anything

Regards
