Hi Louise

Please find our current pricelist attached. This runs until 31st March 2022 and includes our prices, product descriptions and order codes. You will notice that some of the codes now have a -5 appended to them, this is a regulatory change to show how many pieces are in each case. Carriage remains free of charge.

I have also inserted the new prices into your email below. Please come back to me if I can help any further.

Kind regards,

Tom
